About David Reed-Brown

David is an entertainer and professional speaker who delights audiences of all ages with magic. He has been ordained clergy for two decades, so he tells amazing stories from life that inspire, teach, and celebrate what it means to be human; to overcome great challenges; to be our truest selves; to challenge our assumptions and experience a love that connects all of us together.

Audiences, from 5 to 5,000, at events both secular and sacred, have been inspired by David's performances. In addition to speaking with magic, David performs stand-up magic shows and enjoys engaging audiences at social events with his strolling magic. He specializes in classic magic that is enlightening and interactive, filled with fun and joy for all. Audiences and participants are made to feel at ease, and often wind up as the stars of the show. Accompanied by beautiful music, silver rings link and unlink like butter – right in an audience member's hands! A candle-lit table floats mysteriously around the stage, even as a volunteer from the audience holds on to it. A child does sleight of hand. A woman volunteer floats in mid-air! Grandma reads the magician's mind...and the stage is filled with a shower of rainbow paper butterflies!

You have the power to direct your friends and guests hearts and minds to the very real wonder that surrounds us, now. Just call the number below to bring this amazing magical entertainer to your event now: 860-304-0021.

Unique Messages

"David Reed-Brown is not a magician who tacked a message onto his show. He is not a speaker who learned a little magic. David brings a lifetime of experience in working with people as a pastor, plus a lifelong passion in magic as a performing art together into a unique presentation that engages, informs, and persuades audiences with a message customized to your needs."

- Robert Fellows
